

UNIT 9: READING EXERCISES

A. Read and choose the correct option for each statement.

1. Airlines flights are over booked because of small / large numbers of no-shows.
2. Overbooking/ Underbooking helps airlines limit the number of empty seats.
3. Airlines provide bumped passengers with cash/ volunteers.
4. Edward carter of White plains/ High plains told the police.
5. When he turned his car/ her car became stucked.
6. The man said he was driving north with his daughter/ son on the Saw Mill.

B. Read the following statements and check the statements that are true or false.

1. People with reservations always show up to the flight. _____
2. A growing number of passengers don't feel lucky if their flight is overbooked. _____
3. Airlines force some of the passengers to get off the plane. _____
4. Global positioning system means GPS. _____
5. Edward Carter made a wrong turn into a train track on Bedford. _____
6. They went to a restaurant on the train track on Route 117. _____