

Matthew: Did you like the party, Sarah?

Sarah: Yes. Matthew. I met a lot of people. Did you see Jenny?
The girl with the short blonde hair?

Matthew: I think so. Was she talking to John at the beginning of the evening?

Sarah: Yes. I tried to speak to him later but he didn't say much.

Matthew: He's OK. He just prefers not to talk a lot.

Sarah: Who was the girl who arrived late? She was very friendly. She knew everyone.

Matthew: That was Mary. She's certainly not quiet!

Sarah: I know her brother, Bob. He was there too.

Matthew: He's still at school, isn't he?

Sarah: Yes. Everyone was a lot older than him. But he didn't mind.

Matthew: Another person I liked was David.

Sarah: Is he rather short?

Matthew: Not at all. He was taller than everybody there! Who else did you meet?

Sarah: Sally. She's travelled all over the world and knows a lot of famous people. Everything she said was interesting.

Matthew: It was a good party.
