

1. Why is the green sea turtle especially affected by the trash in the ocean?

It lays its eggs in the trash.

The trash stops it from swimming.

It thinks the trash is food.

2. How did researchers study the turtles' feeding habits?

They swam near the turtles with video cameras.

They put video cameras on the turtles.

They put video cameras in the trash.

3. What do turtles like to eat?

meat and eggs

jellyfish and algae

plastic bags

4. What does eating plastic do to the turtles?

It can kill them.

It can make them faster.

It can cause stomach problems.

5. What are threats to the green sea turtles?

getting caught in nets

being hunted

getting eaten by jellyfish