

HANSEL AND GRETEL

“I have an idea!” said Hansel. “We can drop bread crumbs this time!”

So, the next morning, when the woodcutter took the children deep inside the forest to leave them there again, the children dropped crumbs of bread all along the way.

But sadly for the children, the animals and birds had eaten up all the crumbs!

Now, Hansel and Gretel walked and walked but couldn't find their way back home.

1-What did the children drop all along the way?

2-Could Gretel find their way back home?

3-Who had eaten all the crumbs?
