One autumn morning, Paul helped his mother with the laundry so he could play.

Today was an exciting day for Paul. After he helped with the laundry he went outside to play.

First, Paul launched his rocket high into the sky. He launched his rocket over and over again.

Next, Paul filled his truck with dirt. He hauled dirt back and forth to build a large hill.

Then, Paul went fishing with his father. He caught six fish.

Finally, Paul and his father went back home. Paul's mother had hamburgers and sauce waiting for them.

As you can see, Paul had a fun autumn day hauling, launching, and fishing.
