Reading

Read the five short texts below, which are all descriptions of places to go on holiday.Choose from the texts (A to E) and complete the answer grid. The texts may be chosen more than once. One has been done for you as an example.

A. Experience the wild beauty of the island, and visit the wonderful ancient Roman ruins, which still remain along the west coast. The 13th century village of Santa Anna is amazingly preserved, with several hostels offering basic but inexpensive accommodation. It's rare tofind somewhere so unspoilt by modern hotels and package holidays.

B. The beautiful clear waters of Carla Bay are perfect for those of you who want to get intothe sea and have some fun. We are the best-rated dive site on the island, with a wide rangeof activities, including kite-surfing, scuba-diving and sailing. We also offer paddle-boardingfor those who prefer a more relaxing activity.

C. This is an amazing holiday, packed full of discovery, nature and activity. Up in the mountains, away from the heat and stress of the crowded holiday beaches, you will have the chance to follow the mountain paths at your leisure. If you're lucky, you might see foxes or red deer, goats or even a bear. Bring your binoculars - they can be hard to spot.

D. For those of you who like variety, a multi-centre trip is the perfect solution. With no more than two nights in the same hotel, we have a choice of destinations to choose from.You can visit the museums of Madrid on Monday, then walk in the mountains on Wednesdayand the markets of Barcelona on Friday. There's never a dull moment on one of our holidays.

E. There are several hotels along the coast of Belamar which cater for visitors with young families. Competitively priced, they offer a range of kids' clubs and activity centres to keepyour little ones occupied, leaving you time to relax on the sun lounger, reading your favourite book or sunbathing. You may even find enough energy to walk across the sand fora gentle swim. Perfect!
