

13.1 Look at A and B opposite and complete these weather collocations.

1 crisp .....	5 a hard .....
2 patches of .....	6 torrential .....
3 strong .....	7 unbroken .....
4 a biting .....	8 a blanket of .....

sunshine - frost - fog - mist
wind(s) - rain - sun – snow

13.2

Look at A and B opposite. Change the underlined words so that each sentence has the opposite meaning.

- 1 There was a light wind yesterday.
- 2 The wind picked up in the evening.
- 3 The weather is likely to improve tomorrow.
- 4 It was scorching hot here yesterday.
- 5 There may be some light rain later on today.
- 6 The mist came down at about midday.

deteriorate
driving strong died down lifted freezing cold

Replace the underlined words in this message with collocations from the opposite page.

Jill Hadfield 26 May at 12:59

I wish I'd worn a warmer jacket. There's a very cold (_____ ) wind. At least it's not raining heavily (_____ ) today. We had such heavy rain (_____ ) yesterday. I wish I was sunbathing (_____ ) on a Mediterranean beach