

SANCTIONS

"Putin must fail." These 1 _____. The way to do this is via all-out economic warfare, not the weak sanctions and half-measures that 2 _____.

3 _____ to the Ukrainian armed forces is key. But much more must be done right now. In the financial sector, the world must impose blanket sanctions against all Belarusian and Russian banks and put them 4 _____ – which will block their assets and make it illegal for everyone in the US to do business with them.

Finally, the 5,000 members of the Russian elite and their families must be banned from obtaining visas to the UK, US and EU. These privileges should be reinstated to 5 _____ with Vladimir Putin's war and resigning, with no exceptions.

So, yes, Putin must fail. But the west must find the courage to ensure that happens. If boots on the ground and no-fly zones are off the table, then the west's response to this war 6 _____ defending democracy and freedom.

- A anybody publicly declaring that they disagree
- B providing weapons, supplies and intelligence;
- C is the most important thing if we want world peace;
- D on the US specially designated list;
- E are the words of the British Prime Minister;
- F should not be expected;
- G have been put in place so far;
- H must be economic warfare in the name of.

