

SUMMER PLANS

Listen to the text. Choose the correct variants.

B: So, what are you going to do/are you doing this summer?

A: Well, I haven't got/have got my tickets yet, but I'm planning/I plan to go to Canada. I'm going to visit my friends/ cousins in Vancouver.

B: Really? That is sounding/sounds exciting!

A: Yes. I have been/haven't been to Canada before.

B: People say/said it's beautiful. Are you going to travel around or stay in one place?

A: Well, I think I am going to fly to Vancouver and stay with my cousins first. Then they're going to take/taking me to Whistler in the mountains.

B: Mountain climbing?

A: No, we are going to go trekking. We are going to spend two/ three weeks trekking around the Rocky Mountains. Then I am going to drive down to the American border. I want/wanted to see Seattle.

B: Is your girlfriend going to travel with you/ too?

A: Well, she doesn't/ isn't a teacher like me, so she can only take two/three weeks' holiday. She is going to join me in Seattle. We are going to stay there for 10/ 12 days and then we are going to fly back together at the beginning of September/December.

B: You're lucky. It sounds/sounded wonderful!
