

Correlative Conjunctions

1

both
and

it is used in informal / formal contexts and it joins two / two or more things that

→ the information must be expressed in _____ structures:

→ when "both ... and" is used in the subject clause, the main verb is always

2

either
or

it is used in informal / formal contexts and it joins two / two or more things that

→ the information must be expressed in _____ structures:

→ when "either ... or" is part of the subject, use personal / object pronouns BUT if it is in an object clause, use personal / object pronouns

subject EX:

object EX:

→ the main verb has to

EX:

5

neither nor

it is used in informal / formal contexts and it joins two / two or more things that

→ to add more alternatives repeat

→ the information must be expressed in _____ structures:

→ when "neither ... nor" is part of the subject, use personal / object pronouns BUT if it is in an object clause, use personal / object pronouns

subject EX:

object EX:

→ the main verb has to

EX:

→ "neither" can sometimes / never be omitted from the sentence