Gerunds infinitives or both?

Complete the following with the gerund, the infinitive or write "both" if the verb can be followed by any of them:

1. I suggest ..... (repeat) the experiment.

2. She recommends ..... (read) Harry Potter.

3. He avoided ..... (answer) my question.

4. She risks ..... (lose) her viewing time.

5. What do you hope ..... (accomplish)?

6. We could offer ..... (change) the time of the meeting.

7. The test failed ..... (confirm) the if he had the virus.

8. We agree ..... (disagree).

9. How did she manage ..... (find) the solution?

10. We have learned ..... (write) a description.

11. I can't afford ..... (lose) any more money.

12. They had arranged ..... (meet) at noon.

13. I must ask you ..... (clean) up your shoes.

14. We expect ..... (receive) the letters tomorrow.

15. When did you decide ..... (cut) your hair?

16. I have planned ..... (go) to the cinema in the afternoon.

17. She promised ..... (finish) her homework.

18. They invited us ..... (go) to their wedding.

19. I didn't want ..... (eat) pizza.

20. I don't mind ..... (come) early.

