

B DATING

VOCABULARY AND GRAMMAR

A Match the phrasal verbs with their meanings.

- | | |
|------------------------------|--|
| _____ 1. break up | a. invite someone on a date |
| _____ 2. cheat on | b. have a good relationship |
| _____ 3. find out | c. secretly date another person |
| _____ 4. get along | d. feel better or recover from something difficult |
| _____ 5. get over | e. go on a date |
| _____ 6. go out | f. reject or say no to an invitation |
| _____ 7. ask (someone) out | g. end a romantic relationship |
| _____ 8. turn (someone) down | h. learn something by accident or on purpose |

B Complete the sentences and questions. Use the words in the box. Two words will be used more than once.

ask	cheat	get	turn
break	find	go

1. After three months, she decided to _____ up with her boyfriend.
2. Did he _____ on her?
3. Do they still _____ along?
4. Afterward, did he _____ out one of her friends?
5. Did she _____ out with one of his friends?
6. How long did it take her to _____ over him?
7. Did she _____ out who he's dating now?
8. Would she _____ him down if he asked her to go out with him again?
9. When they _____ up, do you think they'll still be friends?

C Correct the sentences.

1. They get long well with each other.
2. Marco asked out her.
3. Did she turn down him?
4. Did she cheat of him?
5. Did she go with him out?
6. Marco with Rita broke up.
7. Rita got it over.