

The simple present tense (negative form)

→ Change the sentences into negative statements. Be careful with spelling and punctuation.

1. He walks happy in the city.

→

2. We do yoga in the park.

→

3. She gets up early.

→

4. Nadal plays tennis on Saturdays.

→

5. School finishes at 3 p.m.

→

6. John studies in his bedroom.

→

7. They watch TV in the evening.

→

8. The dogs run in the park.

→

9. I wash my car every week.

→

10. I water my plants in summer.

→

11. My grandparents go to work.

→