Exercise 4

Two friends are talking on the phone.
Complete the dialogue using some or any. Circle the correct quantifier.
When you're finished, read the dialogue out loud with a partner.

Mark: Hi, Ted! How's life in Japan? Have you made _____ new friends yet?
1. some / (any)

Ted: Hey, Mark! Life is good. Yeah, I've made _____ friends, but I miss life in California, too.
2. some / any

Mark: You'll settle in soon enough. How's the job search going? _____ new leads?
3. Some / Any

Ted: I've been on _____ interviews, but nobody has hired me yet.
4. some / any

I'm going on an interview tomorrow for a great company.

Mark: That's great. I'll send _____ good luck your way.
5. some / any

Ted: And how's life with you? Have you met _____ girls lately?
6. some / any

Mark: I met _____ girls at a party last weekend.
7. some / any

I talked to one of them for hours, and we're going out tonight.

Ted: Wow, that's great! Good luck!

Mark: Thanks. _____ more news?
8. Some / Any

Ted: I'm sure I'll have _____ news for you soon. I hope I get the job!
9. some / any

Mark: And I hope I get the girl!
