

Shakespeare with a twist. Go to thinglink. Click here.

Number 1. Let's learn about Shakespeare. Do the Cloze text from Photodentro.

Number 2. Have you ever heard of the expression 'It's all Greek to me'? Watch the video and do the quiz.

It means: Something is _____ to understand.

Number 3. Look at some more Shakespearean expressions! Can you find their meanings?

- | | |
|----------------------------------|--|
| A. As dead as a doornail | 1. Don't be fooled by people that look good |
| B. The world is mine oyster | 2. Completely dead/ not working |
| C. All that glisters is not gold | 3. To not be able to hide your feelings |
| D. Put your heart on your sleeve | 4. It describes the opportunities that open up when you take risks |
| E. What's done is done | 5. You shouldn't feel bad about sth that happened in the past |

Number 4. Watch this funny video and answer the questions.

- What is the old English word for 'you'?
- What is the old English word for 'are'?
- What is the old English word for 'afraid'?
- Complete the sentences:
 - "_____ art beautiful"
 - "Shall I compare _____ to a summer's day?"
 - "_____ eyes art beautiful"
 - "_____ heart is pure"
- Translate "Don't hurt me" in old English:

Alas! There is one more question!!!

- What did Juliet meant when she said: "Wherefore art thou Romeo?"

Numbers 5 and 6. Look at the lists of expressions about love and friendships and insults.

Number 7. Now work in pairs. Go to Pixton comics to create your own comic using Shakespearean expressions and words.