Hi Javier⁰,

John is one of my best friends, so of course I know him very well. He's 30¹ and he hasn't got a job² yet but he's just finished medicine at university³. His parents both work and he has got three younger sisters⁴.

John's an intelligent boy⁵. He can be shy at first⁶, but when he gets to know you, he's incredibly friendly⁷. He's good with children⁸, he often looks after his sisters, so he has a lot of experience. He's good at making new friends⁹. He's quite hard-working¹⁰. He's also very mature and responsible¹¹. The only problem with John is that he's a bit forgetful¹²... he sometimes loses things, like his keys, or his phone¹³. Also, to be honest, his Spanish isn't fantastic, but I'm sure he'll improve very quickly¹⁴.

In this free time, he likes going to the cinema¹⁵, listening to music¹⁶, and he's also very good at photography. He always has his camera with him¹⁷. He's really independent and happy to do things on his own¹⁸, so you won't have to worry about taking him to places.

I think your friends will love it¹⁹. Let me know if you need to know anything else²⁰. I hope this helps!

Love,
Jesús²¹

- 3.- Enriquecemos el texto con expresiones de nivel pero amoldándolas de tal forma que el texto tenga sentido, haciendo pequeñas modificaciones del mismo si se precisan.

Hi Javier⁰,

John is one of my best friends, so of course I know him very well. He's 30¹ and he hasn't got a job² so, someone must let him fly the nest. It's to say, it's high time he stood on his own to feet¹, yet he's just finished medicine at university³. His parents both work and he has got three younger sisters⁴, but just picture what will happen once they have passed away?²

John's truly³ an intelligent boy⁵. He can be shy at first⁶, but when he gets to know you he starts doing things on his own⁴, so must let it be⁵ because he's incredibly friendly⁷. He's good with children⁸, he often looks after his sisters. If I was in your shoes I would ask him for help⁶ because it's vital that⁷ he has a lot of experience. Otherwise⁸ he would not be good at making friends⁹. He's quite hard-working¹⁰. He's also very mature and responsible¹¹. The only problem with John is that he's a bit forgetful¹²...Lack of⁹ concentration will bring about¹⁰ he sometimes loses things, like his keys, or his phone¹³. Also, to be honest, his Spanish isn't fantastic, but I'm sure he'll improve very quickly¹⁴.

On another note¹¹, it's likely that¹² in this free time, he likes going to the cinema¹⁵, he is keen on¹³ listening to music¹⁶, and he's also very good at photography, so, what's the way forward?¹⁴, Are you going to get him¹⁵ to study photography in the future?, remember he always has his camera with him¹⁷...it's would be selfish not to give him this opportunity coming from his own flesh and blood¹⁶.

He's really independent and happy to do things on his own¹⁸. My piece of advice¹⁷ you won't have to worry about taking him to places. The sooner you travel with him, the quicker you will enjoy him²⁰.

Last but not least²², I think your friends will love it¹⁹. let me know if you need to know anything else²⁰. I'll call in at you every week³⁰. I hope this helps!

Love,
Jesús²¹
