

■. Choose the correct responses.

1. A: Say, you really look different.
B: Well, my hair is a little longer now.
 - I moved into a new house.
 - I'm more outgoing than before.
 - Well, my hair is a little longer now.
2. A: I haven't seen you for ages.
B: Well, I got a bank loan.
 - I know. How have you been?
 - Well, I got a bank loan.
 - My new job is more stressful.
3. A: You know, I have three kids now.
B: Well, I've grown a mustache.
 - Well, I've grown a mustache.
 - That's terrific!
 - Say, you've really changed your hair.
4. A: How are you?
B: Well, actually, I turned 18.
 - I do more aerobics these days.
 - Well, actually, I turned 18.
 - I'm doing really well.

■. Rewrite these sentences. Find another way to say each sentences using the words given.

1. Alice quit eating rich food.
Alice eats healthier food now. (healthier)
2. James lost a lot of weight.
James is heavier now. (heavier)
3. Mary goes to a new school now.
Mary is changing schools. (change)
4. Tess got divorced last year.
Tess is married now. (married)
5. I've grown out my hair.
I have longer hair now. (longer)
6. We quit working out at the gym.
We don't go to the gym now. (go)