

1. Complete the dialogue with the words from the box:

contagious	fever	dizzy	apply	killing	limping	hurt	twisted	black eye
------------	-------	-------	-------	---------	---------	------	---------	-----------

— What's the problem?

— I feel 1. _____ all the time, once I even fainted at work.

My secretary had to pour cold water right on my expensive Gucci suit.

— I'm so sorry to hear that! Try drinking more liquids. Ginger may also help to relieve the symptoms of dizziness.

— Oh, my... How did you get that 2. _____?

— My kid was playing with a ball, I was sitting next to him and the ball hit me in the eye.

— You'd better do something about it, like put some ice on it. It looks terrible.

— Honey, why are you 3. _____? Has anything happened?

— Don't even ask. I've fallen down from the stairs and 4. _____ my ankle.

— Oh dear! You should lie down and keep your leg up.

— Does anything disturb you?

— Yes, my feet are just 5. _____. I've got terrible blisters all over them.

— You need to get other shoes. I've told you a hundred times, don't buy cheap things.

Also 6. _____ some ointment. It might help.

— How is your health now?

— I believe it's not getting better, unfortunately.

— Do you think your disease is 7. _____ like flu or some other viruses?

— Might be. I just hope it's not pneumonia /nju:'mæʊ.ni.ə/. I've got a really bad cough and

8. _____.

— You must call a doctor immediately and make an appointment.

Drink warm tea with honey, lemon and ginger.

— What's the matter with you?

— I've 9. _____ my arm playing badminton.

— Then, please, leave your arm in peace. Don't move it.

2. Substitute the highlighted words with the correct ones. Write down only one word for each sentence.

1. Ouch! I've hurt my pneumonia. Now I can't walk. Please, help me to get to the bathroom.

2. — You know what! Jack has a very serious ointment.

— Oh dear! I'm really sorry to hear that. Is it dangerous?

3. — Why are you fainting?

— Never mind. I just twisted my ankle when running around with my kid. It's getting better.

4. I feel contagious. I need to sit down for a while. Please bring me some water with lemon.

5. — I've burnt my finger again when cooking.

— I'm so sorry to hear that! Let me help you to apply some blisters.

6. My back is just beating me. I need to take up swimming to get rid of the pain.