

Chapter 1: The Last Time

Complete the text with only one word per blank.

Dr Richard Kimble and his wife Helen attended a dinner party at the Chicago Hilton _____, together with Richard's colleagues from the Chicago Memorial _____. Charlie Nichols introduced Richard to Dr Alex Lentz, who was testing a new _____, RDU-90. Richard was confused because he'd seen three _____ livers from dead people who had been treated with RDU-90, while Dr Lentz had written in his report that the livers were all _____.

Richard was bored at the party and suggested _____ Helen that they went home, but she reminded _____ that the event was held to raise funds for his hospital. They stayed on, and two hours _____ they drove home. On the way Richard received a _____ from the hospital asking him to go because there was an emergency case. He dropped Helen off at their house and drove _____ to the hospital.

At the hospital Richard had to _____ a patient with a damaged liver. The operation was a success and Richard was able to drive back home. He phoned Helen _____ the car, who put down her reading and went up to the bedroom. _____ she was getting her night clothes, Helen was attacked by a big man dressed in black. He hit Helen hard in the _____ and Helen fell back on the bed. She managed to reach the _____ and the man _____ her in the leg. She tried to speak into the phone but there was another shot, this time in her _____.