

1. Copy the following text.

Our circulatory system is like a transport system. It carries nutrients from the food we eat and oxygen from the air we breathe around the body.

Our _____ is like a transport system. It carries _____ from the food we eat and _____ from the air we breathe _____.

2. Write true or false.

The heart is a joint

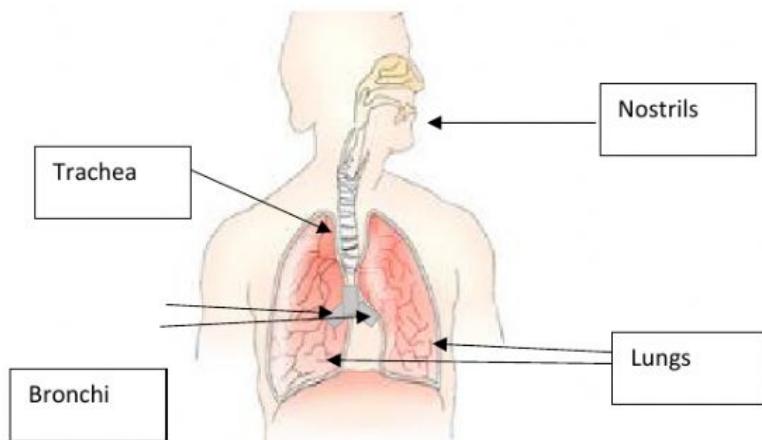

The blood carries nutrimentos and oxygen around our bodies

Blood travels in thin tubes called blood vessels

The heart is protected by the skull.

When we run or jump our heart beats faster

3. Look the picture and complete the following text with the words box.

nostrils	oxygen	bronchi	lungs	trachea
----------	--------	---------	-------	---------

Our respiratory system.

_____ enters our blood through the respiratory system when we breathe in.

The _____ has two holes called nostrils where the air enters our body.

The _____ is a tube that divides into two smaller tubes called _____.

The _____ are two sacks that are protected by our ribs.

4. Read the following text and copy the missing words.

Our reproductive system allows us to have babies. The female reproductive system produces eggs in the ovaries. The male reproductive system produces sperm in the testicles. When a sperm fertilizes an egg it goes to the uterus. It stays there and develops into a baby.

Our reproductive system allows us to have _____. The female reproductive system produces eggs in the _____. The male reproductive system produces sperm in the _____. When a sperm fertilizes an egg it goes to the _____. It stays there and develops into a baby.

5. Listen to the audio and check the corresponding box with a "X".

This audio speak about....

	Circulatory system
	Respiratory system
	Reproductive system

This audio speak about....

	Circulatory system
	Respiratory system
	Reproductive system

This audio speak about....

	Circulatory system
	Respiratory system
	Reproductive system