

Vamos a repasar el pentagrama y las notas musicales.

El pentagrama es el conjunto de      líneas y      espacios donde se escriben las notas musicales.

Al principio del pentagrama se escribe la que es la encargada de poner nombre a las notas.

Las notas musicales se colocan en las      y en los

A handwriting practice sheet featuring a large musical staff with five lines. On the first line, there is a dotted oval outline of a treble clef. Below the staff, there are three rows of five horizontal lines each, intended for students to practice writing musical notes. In the first row, the first note is a solid oval. In the second row, the first note is a solid oval. In the third row, the first note is a solid oval. The other four notes in each row are represented by dashed ovals, likely for tracing practice.
