

Chapter 6: Reports

Correct the wrong information. Some sentences have no mistakes.

1. Richard went back to his hospital.

2. It took him some time to find the department of patients with artificial limbs.

3. He put on some nurse's clothes.

4. He rented a cheap room at the top of a house.

5. Gerard asked Poole to phone Charlie Nichols.

6. Dr Nichols told the officers about his encounter with Kimble.

7. At the hospital Kimble passed himself off as a cleaner.

8. When asked about the regular cleaner, Kimble said he was taking over from him.

9. When the doctor left, Kimble took the reports out of a filing cabinet.

10. He hid the reports in his rucksack.

11. He found a small empty room and read the reports.
