

POSSESSIONS

Let's remember the rule for have got (affirmative)

HAVE GOT +

I've got (have got)	I've got a phone.
you've got (have got)	You've got a guitar.
he's got (has got)	He's got two pet fish.
she's got (has got)	She's got a nice flat.
it's got (has got)	It's got a big living room.
we've got (have got)	We've got lots of board games.
they've got (have got)	They've got a TV in their bedroom.

1. Put the words in the correct column.

My cat	Lions	My grandma	Mum and I	The book	Ann
Dogs	John and Pat	The classroom	My cousins	Peter	My house

HAVE GOT	HAS GOT

2. Choose the correct option.

- a) Ann _____ two brothers. f) My mother _____ a red bag.
- b) Jim _____ a good camera. g) My friends and I _____ a guitar.
- c) I _____ a lot of friends. h) My house _____ three bedrooms.
- d) We _____ big books. i) You _____ a sister.
- e) James and Charlie _____ a beautiful car.

3. Put the words in order.

a) computer I got also have a → _____

b) school got My has classrooms ten → _____

c) sister books got My four has → _____

4. Look at the picture. Read the sentences and choose the correct person.

Jack's bag

Susan's bag

In my bag....

I've got some clothes. _____

I've got keys. _____

I've got seven books. _____

I've got a pink water bottle. _____

I've also got some makeup and a pink wallet. _____

I've got a white phone. _____

I've got a laptop. _____

My bag isn't gray. _____

My water bottle isn't pink. _____

5. Imagine this is your friend's bag. Write a text in your notebook about what he or she has got in his/her bag.

Include: name, age, nationality, "also", colours and numbers.

