

Look at the base verb. Type the correct form of the verb into the textbox.

|                    |   |
|--------------------|---|
| base verb: to be   | I                      a dancer now.                                  |
|                    | She                      a dancer now too.                            |
|                    | When he                      young, he                      a dancer. |
| base verb: to play | This year I                      volleyball on Thursdays.             |
|                    | This year my son                      volleyball on Thursdays.        |
|                    | Last year we                      volleyball on Wednesdays.           |
| base verb: to like | You                      jazz music.                                  |
|                    | She                      quiet music.                                 |
|                    | I                      rap music when I was young.                    |
| base verb: to do   | They                      karate three times a week.                  |
|                    | She                      karate twice a week.                         |
|                    | Last year they                      karate at home because of COVID.  |

|                    |                        |   |
|--------------------|------------------------|---|
| base verb: to go   | We                     | fishing last weekend.                         |
|                    | He                     | fishing when the weather is good.             |
|                    | I                      | fishing most weekends.                        |
| base verb: to win  | They                   | the chess game every time we play!            |
|                    | She                    | the card game every time we play!             |
|                    | Yesterday I            | for the first time!                           |
| base verb: to make | She is clever. She     | beautiful clothes.                            |
|                    | They are skilful. They | wooden toys.                                  |
|                    | Last year they         | a large wooden dolls house.                   |
| base verb: to play | You                    | the piano well.                               |
|                    | He                     | the piano every day.                          |
|                    | I                      | the piano when I was a child but I don't now. |

|                    |  |
|--------------------|--|
| base verb: to go   | I _____ horse riding on Saturdays. My friend _____ horse riding with me. Last weekend we _____ horse riding for six hours.  |
| base verb: to like | I _____ soccer but I don't _____ Australian Rules football. She _____ Australian Rules but she doesn't _____ soccer. When I was at school, I _____ playing rugby. |
| base verb: to do   | You _____ a lot of volunteering. She also _____ a lot of volunteering. When I didn't have a job, I _____ a lot of volunteering.                                   |
| base verb: to be   | You _____ very good at badminton. She _____ also very good at badminton. When I _____ young, I _____ good at tennis.  |