

Chapter 8: Running Again

Choose True, False or Don't Know.

1. There was no artificial limbs department at the Chicago Memorial Hospital.
2. Gerard hesitated about Kimble's intentions to find the one-armed man.
3. Kimble built up courage to go into the prison.
4. Eventually, he went in and took the elevator to the waiting room.
5. As soon as he saw him, Kimble recognized Driscoll.
6. Gerard, Newman and Poole questioned Driscoll.
7. On his way out, Kimble bumped into Gerard on the stairs.
8. Kimble ran downstairs to the back doors.
9. Gerard ordered all exits to be closed.
10. As Kimble jumped through the doors, his right foot got stuck.
11. He pulled hard, managed to free it and the doors closed.
12. Kimble went to Frederick Sykes's house.
13. Upon inspection, Kimble understood that Sykes lived alone.
14. He found a photograph of Sykes with Alex Lentz.
15. He also learned that Sykes worked for Devlin-MacGregor.
16. He understood the partners at Devlin-MacGregor wanted him dead because he knew of the side effects of RDU-90.
17. He phoned Gerard to tell him about his discovery.
