

1. Firing him just before Christmas was unnecessary.
2. The CFO has made a very decision.
3. More than just training, the staff needs a repositioning.
4. The stocks had a fluctuation due to the GDP numbers.
5. Alan is an person. He's a great conversationalist.
6. Carol was at the number of candidates for the accountant position.
7. 500 people must be a big challenge.
8. 500 people is a number to be in charge with.
9. Sue is good at problems at work.
10. Most men try not to look or fragile.
11. The production line is behind schedule. They will be able to catch up.
12. What is important issue to be discussed.
13. Ann is looking forward to about this year's bonus.
14. It is quite to work across from my boss. I'd rather have my own room.
15. Edward had some when he found out about the HR drastic changes.
16. By not the fee on time, you might lose the right to participate in the financial course.
17. The CFO has decided to verify the suppliers invoices.
18. George was ill, so he had to retire at an early age.
19. Patrick felt after the bad news.
20. Why not changing the supplier instead of the prices.
21. a start-up company demands taking risks all the time.
22. Laura is very in learning about the new data protection guide.
23. It is crucial to be when making decisions concerning the future of the company.
24. Wasting time having too many coffee breaks the general manager.
25. The production line is behind their schedule.
26. directors have decided to give up the annual bonus due to the financial situation.
27. She finally got her and will be able to work in England.
28. It is very rare and to have two directors working in the same area.
29. David felt half way through the meeting.
30. Since they're all from South Africa, they're used to on the left.