Choose the right word and put in the right preposition.

The year 2020 has been a presumptuous / tumultuous one [ ] educators. Hundreds [ ] thousands of teachers across the globe had to get [ ] clips / grips [ ] online platforms / platform to deliver their lessons. Millions of students were struck / stuck [ ] home doing their lessons via websites like Zoom. This has created an unprecedented transformation [ ] education was / as technology has taken centre stage. The quality of education differed / referred around the world according to / of the quality of Internet connections, the level [ ] preparedness of teachers and their competence on / in engaging [ ] the technology. It also depended in / on what kind of devices students had at home. Many students were depraved / deprived of lessons because they had no computer, tablet or smartphone.

The Education Ministry in Malaysia has tumbled / rolled out a new initiative to help underprivileged children. Around 150,000 eligible / iris pupils from 500 schools will receive a device to cable / enable them to participate [ ] online lessons. The Education Minister hopes to version / build [ ] the success [ ] this initial rollout / roulette to expand the programme. He said: "Apart [ ] assisting pupils and schools [ ] need, this pilot protect / project is to find the best implementation method before it is proposed [ ] contraction / expansion." The plans include enhancing educational television programming [ ] students with not / no Internet access, and employing sign language interpreters to help the heard / hard of hearing. A teacher said she was happy her government was prioritizing students' needs / needy.

LIVEWORKSHEETS