Part 6

Questions 27–32

For each question, write the correct answer.
Write one word for each gap.

The Tower of London

I hope you like the photos of our holiday. My favourites are the ones (27) the Tower of London. The big black birds you can see in one of the photos are called 'ravens'. The story goes that if ever these birds leave, the Tower will fall along with the country. (28) are always supposed to be (29) least six but the Tower keeps seven or more, just to be safe! The guide explained that it was King Charles II (30) ordered this when he was warned of the dangers of killing the birds.

They don't want the ravens to fly away so one of their wings is 'clipped'. We were told that this doesn't hurt them at all but that it stops them flying away. All the birds are given names and I was surprised (31) learn that the oldest one they've had was called Jim Crow, who lived (32) he was 44 years old!

Subject: Where shall we meet?

Hi

I enjoyed hearing all your latest news last month and I'm really looking forward to seeing you next week!

I know your town quite well as I've been there a few times. Where would you like to meet?

I'll be travelling with my dad! He won't be eating with us but I wondered if you had any suggestions for what he could do during the evening.

Shall I bring my photos of our holiday together?

Write back soon!

Marcela

Me too!
