NUMBERS QUIZ (1)

1. Cardinal Numbers are "counting numbers".
   - True
   - False

2. Cardinal Numbers are "whole numbers".
   - True
   - False

3. A Numeral is a symbol or name that stands for a number. The number is the idea, the numeral is how we write it.
   - True
   - False

4. A Digit is a single symbol used to write Numerals.
   - True
   - False

5. When written as words, Cardinal Numbers from 13 to 19 end in "TY".
   - True
   - False

6. We use Cardinal Numbers to say the position in a series or sequence.
   - True
   - False

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. Ordinal Numbers are created adding a prefix to Cardinal Numbers:
   - ○ True
   - ○ False

8. When written as words, Ordinal Numbers always end in "TH"
   - ○ True
   - ○ False

9. If there is a "point" separating digits in a numeral, it means it is not a Cardinal Number. For example, "900.981".
   - ○ True
   - ○ False

10. If there is a "comma" separating digits in a numeral, it means it is not a Cardinal Number. For example, "900,981".
   - ○ True
   - ○ False

11. The words "billion" and "trillion" have a different meaning depending on if it is American English or British English.
   - ○ True
   - ○ False

12. In American English, the word "billion" means...
   - ○ A thousand million (1,000,000,000)
   - ○ A million million (1,000,000,000,000)

LIVEWORKSHEETS