Name: _____ HOMEWORK Points: _____

UNIT 5A MY NEIGHBORHOOD

GRAMMAR

A Write a request for each situation. Use can you, could you, will you, would you, or would you mind.

1. You're at a job interview. You don't understand the question.

_____

2. You're at a restaurant with your friends. You don't have enough money.

_____

3. You're trying to study. Your brother is watching TV.

_____

4. Your instructor is speaking very quietly. You can't hear.

_____

5. You're cleaning your apartment with your roommate. The furniture is very heavy.

_____

6. You're writing a paper in English. You think there are some mistakes.

_____

7. Your friend is going grocery shopping. You need some coffee.

_____

8. You don't have time to cook dinner for the family. Your sister said she can help but is talking on the phone.

_____

B Agree to these requests. Choose the correct answers.

1. Would you mind going to the store for me?
   a. Yes, of course. b. No, not at all.
2. Would you drive me to my dentist appointment?
   a. I'd be glad to. b. Sorry, but I would.
3. Can you help me with my errands?
   a. Sure, no problem. b. Not at all.
4. Would you answer the phone, please?
   a. Of course. b. No, I'd be glad to.

C Circle the mistakes and rewrite the questions correctly.

1. Could you mind turning down the music?

_____

2. Will you passing me the salt?

_____

3. Could you closed the window, please?

_____

4. Can you explaining that to me again?

_____

5. Would you mind help me with this?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS