

hardly	on no account	in/ under
no circumstances	only/ only by	neither/ nor
only in this way	never	only then/ when
no sooner ... than	rarely	not only
scarcely	not till/ until	seldom
nowhere	so

EXERCISES

1. Write the sentence and include the adverb. It should come in mid position or, if necessary, after the subject.

1. I watch quiz shows. (never)

.....

2. Someone has been telling me the news. (just)

.....

3. I have to work late. (usually)

.....

4. I don't get up so early. (always)

.....

5. We have moved house. (recently)

.....

6. You'll definitely pass the exam, but I won't. (probably)

.....

7. The bus is a few minutes late. (usually)

.....

8. But I do have a day off. (seldom)

.....

9. We're getting ready to go out. (just)

.....

10. I've been checking all these figures. (carefully)

.....

2. Complete the sentences, using one of the following adverbs

slowly	easily	here	a bit	tomorrow
clearly	happily	much	a lot	automatically

1. You must see the doctor

2. You didn't write the address
3. The children played
4. The train travelled so
5. They won the game
6. The meeting was held
7. The machine switches itself off
8. We don't go out
9. I play the piano
10. I watch TV

3. Choose the correct word.

1. I sing very (bad/badly).
2. She speaks English (good/well).
3. They make very (good/well) bread here.
4. She (hard/hardly) ever wins a game.
5. Do you (usual/usually) eat in restaurants?
6. I understand English quite (good/well).
7. We have to work (hard/hardly) for the exams.
8. I ran as (fast/fastly) as I could.
9. I haven't seen the postman (late/lately).
10. He often gets up (early/earlily).

4. In the following sentences, place in regular positions the modifiers listed in parentheses. Do not place them at the beginning of a sentence.

1. I'll meet you (tomorrow, outside your office, at 2 pm.)
2. He played (at the Opeza House, beautifully, in the concert)
3. We read the magazine _____. (eagerly, every week)
4. He telephones me _____. (always, in the morning)
5. He has worked _____. (for three weeks, at this stone)
6. He doesn't travel _____. (ever, by plane)
7. He arrives _____. (on time, never, at the meeting)
8. She will return the book _____. (next week, to the library)
9. We are going (for a week, to Japan, on Saturday)
10. She planted tulips _____. (yesterday, in the garden)

5. Complete the sentences. Put the words and phrases in the correct order.

1. Your brother played.....(in yesterday's game, well)
2. I get to work..... (early, most days)
3. I hope you'll visit us..... (her, soon)