

Choose the correct option in the sentences below.

1. She's a well-knew / well-know / good-known artist.
2. Old people are high-respected / highly-respect / highly-respected in Japan
3. Logo design should always be purpose-drive / purpose-driving / purpose-driven .
4. Unfortunately I don't remember any details, except that it was a middle-aged / an average age / an average-aged woman from the UK or USA.
5. Glenlivet is one of the most wide-recognizing / widely recognized / wide-recognized brands in the business.
6. Hopefully, he gets some much-needed / much need / much needing rest plus positional growth over the summer.
7. She's very old-fashioned / old-fashion / elder- fashioned in her outlook.
8. Seriously, this app looks very useful and time-save / time-saved / time-saving .