

PAST SIMPLE TENSE

AFFIRMATIVE

He _____ in tourism at the age of 12. (start)
She _____ on the Cayman Islands. (train)
He _____ one year of experience as a chef. (have)
I _____ to change my money to the local currency. (have)
I _____ a flexible flight ticket for my holidays. (buy)
You _____ through security check twice. (go)
Catered accommodation _____ the tourist with food. (provide)
We _____ our holidays online. (book)
The resort rep _____ us to wait for the entrance. (tell)
The travel agent _____ everything for us. (pay)
They _____ the historic monument yesterday. (visit)
We _____ at the beach last week. (stay)
You _____ to the castle last month. (travel)

NEGATIVE

He _____ in tourism at the age of 12. (start)
She _____ on the Cayman Islands. (train)
He _____ one year of experience as a chef. (have)
I _____ to change my money to the local currency. (have)
I _____ a flexible flight ticket for my holidays. (buy)
You _____ through security check twice. (go)
Catered accommodation _____ the tourist with food. (provide)
We _____ our holidays online. (book)
The resort rep _____ us to wait for the entrance. (tell)
The travel agent _____ everything for us. (pay)
They _____ the historic monument yesterday. (visit)
We _____ at the beach last week. (stay)
You _____ to the castle last month. (travel)

INTERROGATIVE

He started in tourism at the age of 12.

She trained on the Cayman Islands.

He had one year of experience as a chef.

I had to change my money to the local currency.

I bought a flexible flight ticket for my holidays.

You went through security check twice.

Catered accommodation provided the tourist with food.

We booked our holidays online.

The resort rep told us to wait for the entrance.

The travel agent paid everything for us.

They visited the historic monument yesterday.

We stayed at the beach last week.

You travelled to the castle last month.
