

A Complete these sentences with there's, there are, and there aren't.

1. There are eight rooms in our house,
and a garage, too.
2. some trees in the yard,
but any flowers.
3. some armchairs in the living room,
and a large table in the dining room.
4. any pictures in the dining room,
but some in the living room.
5. a stove and a refrigerator in the kitchen,
but no microwave oven.
6. three bedrooms in the house,
and one bathroom.

