

Chapter 10: Lies

Mark the true statements.

- 1 Kimble showed Mr Roosevelt all the reports on RDU-90.
Kimble showed Kath Wahlund all the reports on RDU-90.
- 2 Newman worked out where Sykes and the other man were in the photograph.
Newman worked out where the man in the photograph with Sykes worked.
- 3 Nichols denied knowing Sykes and Lentz.
Nichols admitted knowing Sykes and Lentz.
- 4 The damaged livers were infected with a rare illness.
The damaged livers were infected with a common illness.
- 5 There were other reports signed by Lentz after his accident.
There were other reports signed by Nichols after Lentz's accident.
- 6 Newman found out that Nichols was a shareholder at Devlin-MacGregor.
Newman found out that both Kimble and Nichols worked with Lentz.

7 A train passenger recognized Kimble and went for a guard.

A train passenger recognized Kimble and pulled the alarm.

8 Sykes turned up and shot the passenger.

Sykes turned up and shot the train guard.

9 Sykes aimed his gun at Kimble.

Kimble hit Sykes' hand with the gun.

10 On the night of Helen's killing, Kimble phoned Sykes from his car phone.

On the night of Helen's killing, Nichols phoned Sykes from Kimble's car phone.

11 In the afternoon Nichols borrowed Kimble's car because his was in the garage.

In the afternoon Kimble took a taxi and collected his car from the garage.

12 Poole confirmed their suspicions that Kimble was not guilty.

Gerard feared that Kimble would be shot by a policeman.