

We also use verb to be to indicate physical states, for example:

The baby

thirsty

They

very hungry

And to talk about someone's age, for example:

He

twenty years old

I

fifty

Exercise 1:

Complete the sentences using is- are or am

- a- Samuel                      fifteen
- b- My friends and I                      students
- c- My mom                      very kind
- d- We                      sisters
- e- He                      a boy
- f- I                      a doctor
- g- They                      my cousins
- h- My pet                      lazy