PUSS IN BOOTS

PÁGINA EVALUADA POR EL PROFESOR

All the lands actually belonged to a very rich and very wicked ogre.

Puss quickly went to the ogre's castle and bravely said, "I have heard that you are a very powerful ogre who can change into any animal. Can you change into a tiny animal like a mouse?"

The ogre was flattered by Puss in Boots' words. "Of course I can! I'll show you right away!" he said and turned into a tiny brown mouse.

In a flash, Puss jumped on him and ate him up in one big bite! The castle now belonged to his master!
