

SPAG

Task: Choose the correct homophone in each sentence below:

The boys were all getting ready (to/too/two) go on a camping trip. They were all eager to set off, but they had (to/too/two) bring a multitude of things with them, including (to/too/two) coats! (There/They're/Their) had been lots of talk about what (to/too/two) (where/wear) due to the uncertain (weather,whether). They had to meet at the school at (to/too/two) o'clock on Saturday. When James and Emmanuel arrived with (there/they're/their) bags, lots of people were (there/they're/their) already. They just couldn't wait for this trip. They all (knew/new) it was going (to/too/two) be so much fun!

Finally everyone got (there/they're/their) bags onto the bus and they were on (there/they're/their) way! They sang songs on the bus and chatted with each other. Soon people started ----- (to/too/two) get bored though -(to/too/two) hours is a very long time on a bus. The teacher could (hear/here) people asking "When will we be (there/they're/their)?" and "..... (Are/Our) we there/they're/their) yet?"

Eventually, they arrived at the camp site. The boys raced off the bus, grabbing (there/they're/their) belongings as they went. The first thing they had to do was get (there/they're/their) tents set up. Everyone (knew/new) how..... (to/too/two) do this as they had had lessons about it last weekend. It took some boys quite a long time (to/too/two) get all the pieces assembled.