Empower B1 U3B

1 VOCABULARY Money

Complete the text with the words in the box.

into	afford	lend	spend	bank account
~~up for~~	borrow	back	loan

I'm saving [1] up for a car at the moment. I pay £200 [2]_____ my [3]_____ each month. I can't [4]_____ to buy a new car, so it will have to be second-hand – probably three or four years old. My parents have offered to [5]_____ me some money but I don't want to [6]_____ any money from them. They've just bought a very old house in the country and they need to [7]_____ a lot of money on repairs. So I'm going to ask the bank for a [8]_____ of £5,000. I think I can pay it [9]_____ in two years.

2 GRAMMAR Present perfect with just, already and yet

Underline the correct adverbs to complete the sentences.

1 I've just / already / yet spent £100 this weekend, so I'm afraid I can't afford to go to a restaurant for dinner.
2 It's Mum's birthday tomorrow – have you bought her a present already / just / yet?
3 Look, I've just / already / yet bought a new mobile phone. It's brilliant, isn't it?
4 He's yet / just / already saved up £3,000 because he wants to travel round the world next summer.
5 A Why does she look so upset?
  B Because she's already / just / yet lost her wallet.
6 No, I can't lend you any more money. You've already / just / yet borrowed £100 from me.
7 Oh, no! We can't play tennis now because it's already / yet / just started raining.
8 She hasn't opened a new bank account already / yet / just.

LIVEWORKSHEETS