

GRAMMAR: Past perfect

- 1 Choose the correct tenses to complete the sentences.
- That evening, I was tired because I _____ ten kilometers in the afternoon.
a had run b ran c was running
 - We _____ hungry because we'd already eaten.
a weren't being b hadn't been c weren't
 - By the time we arrived at the theater, the play _____.
a had already started b already started c was already starting
 - When I met Lara I was sure I _____ her somewhere before.
a saw b was seeing c had seen
 - I'd put on a thick jacket and I _____ too warm later.
a was being b had been c was
 - I _____ how the movie would end because I had read the book.
a had known b knew c know
 - He had cut his finger while he _____ the meat.
a was preparing b preparing c had prepared
 - We arrived late to the party, so most of the food _____.
a was gone b went c was going
 - I didn't have any money with me; I _____ my wallet.
a forget b forgot c was forgetting
 - Camilla said she had met Igor while she _____ around Europe.
a traveled b was traveling c had traveled

- 2 Complete the sentences with the verb pairs. Write one simple past and one past perfect form in each sentence.

say / go live / move know / be meet / know pass / study be / lose finish / leave be / leave

- After we _____ our dinner, we _____ the restaurant.
- The teacher _____ angry because I _____ my work at home.
- He _____ feeling stressed because he _____ his phone.
- Jorge _____ all his exams because he _____ hard all year.
- I _____ Javier once at Laura's house, so I _____ who he was.
- She _____ in Italy for three years before she _____ to France.
- Eduardo _____ most of the people at the club because he _____ there before.
- After I _____ good night, I _____ to bed.

VOCABULARY: Sports and competitions

- 3 Order the letters to make words that match the definitions.
- to behave dishonestly in order to achieve something THEAC _____
 - someone who watches people playing sports TRAPECOTS _____
 - to win a point CROSE _____
 - someone who practices a sport very well THELATE _____
 - the person who controls the game FREEREE _____
 - a prize for winning a competition HOTPRY _____
- 4 Complete the words. Some of the letters are given.
- She hopes to win a gold m_____ at the next Olympics.
 - Our team needs another goal to t_____ the score.
 - There was a huge c_____ watching last night's game.
 - Don't forget to w_____ u_____ before you go running.
 - Would you like to t_____ p_____ in our swimming competition?
 - You can't g_____ u_____ now. You're nearly at the finishing line!

PRONUNCIATION: 'd/hadn't

- 5  10.1 Practice saying the sentences. Pay attention to the pronunciation of 'd and hadn't. Listen, check, and repeat.
- She'd already won the match.
 - He hadn't taken part in the competition.
 - We'd lost both games.
 - They certainly hadn't cheated.
 - We hadn't scored yet.
 - They'd tied in the semifinal.