

Question Booklet - Second Trimester Evaluation Science

1. Which hormones are important in the female reproductive cycle?
 - a. Estrogen and progesterone
 - b. Testosterone and adrenaline
 - c. Progesterone and testosterone
 - d. Adrenaline and estrogen

2. This system controls everything you do:
 - a. Nervous.
 - b. Circulatory.
 - c. Respiratory.
 - d. Endocrine.

3. What is the type of muscle of the part labelled as A _____ and B _____ ?

4. What is the name of the part labelled as 1?

 What is the function of that part?

5. Fill the blanks with the name of the bones.

6. Why is oxygen important in the human body?

7. The menstrual cycle lasts ____ days approximately.

8. What is menstruation?

- a. When fertilization occurs
- b. When the fallopian tubes are small
- c. When an ovule goes outside the body
- d. When the woman is very fertile

9. Which hormone does the Pancreas produce? _____

10. Which type of cell are you observing in the image? (Prokaryotic or Eukaryotic cell) _____

11. Ovules or eggs are stored in the (A) _____ while (B) _____ are produced in the testicles. When these two cells join or come together, they create (C) _____.

12. Do the activities proposed in the chart (1min) and calculate your heart frequency in a minute.

	Beats in 10 seconds	Multiply by 6	Beats in a minute
Resting
Jumping hacks			