

MERRY GYPSIES

Complete the lines in each stanza with the words from the box.

ESMERALDA
Dream of a _____
Where we _____
Are finally _____
To enjoy the _____
Of a merry _____,
With no fears at _____

ALL
Paris never _____ Gypsies always _____
Of a _____ on
These gloomy _____
Paris never _____
Gypsies always _____
Paris never _____

ERIC
Always _____ to
Sing, _____ and laugh
At the _____ sight of Maidens _____ for
Big _____ and love
When _____ old hags

ROY _____ ready to
Tell the _____ fortune,
See your _____ future
Even _____ we know
We are _____ lies
For a few _____ coins

ALL
_____ always dream
Of a merry _____
For the _____
On these gloomy _____

TOBY
Always _____ to Play _____,
Castanets and _____
To _____ your heart
When a merry _____
By a _____ is played.

ALL
Paris never _____ Gypsies always _____
Of a _____ on
These gloomy _____
Paris never _____
Gypsies always _____
Paris _____
Paris never _____

ALL
DAY
DREAM
FREE
GYPSIES
JOY

DREAM
DREAM FEAST
SLEEPS SLEEPS
STREETS

BEING DANCE
FORTUNE
LOOKING MERRY
READY

ALWAYS DIRTY
GOOD
MERRY TELLING THOUGH

FEAST GLOOMY
GYPSIES PEOPLE

CONQUER
CYMBALS
GIPSY
READY TAMBOURINES
TUNE

DREAM
DREAM FEAST
SLEEPS SLEEPS SLEEPS
STREETS

QUASIMODO OF NOTRE DAME

TELLING YOUR FORTUNE

Who sings what?

Join the bubbles of speech to the characters:

Give me your hand
Not to tell lies
But your present,
Future and past
You will be rich,
You'll marry young,
To the prettiest
girl in the camp

I will be rich
I'll marry young
To the ugliest
Girl in the camp

TOBY

What can I see?
Many good things
You are a good guy
Who studies hard
You like pretty
Curly-haired girls
And strawberries
On sweet big pies

ESMERALDA

Thank you, good sir,
For being patient
With these gypsies
That read your hand.

Try your fortune
And have great fun
With these gypsies
That read your hand!

QUASIMODO OF NOTRE DAME

PRISONER'S LUCK

Replace the pictures with the appropriate words as you sing.

QUASIMODO

This  is my home
where I belong, they say
One day I will go out
Forever I won't stay.

My hope, this
The only light I see
One day I'll feel the
On the green fields and trees.

One day I'll feel the breeze
One day I'll feel the
The drops against my skin
Will wash away the pain.

One day I'll leave
I'll change my fate
When will it be?
I cannot wait
One day I'll toll the
For the last time, I swear!
One day I'll leave this place
I'll do it come what may
One day I will be
Will that day be today?

THE TASTE OF FREEDOM

Put the lines in order as you listen to the song.

ESMERALDA

____ And dark tunnels ahead
____ And you will never, ever
____ But you have to feel
____ Dangers, risky edges
____ Forget its savour
____ Free to love or hug
____ Free to sing and cry
____ Free to walk and dance
____ Freedom also means
____ Of being the owner
____ Of your own inner self
____ Other people's hearts
____ The sweet sensation
____ The taste of freedom
____ You must try and feel

QUASIMODO

____ Free to come and go
____ Free to leave behind
____ I like what you say
____ Never felt before
____ That imprison my soul
____ These four gloomy walls
____ This need to be free
____ To enjoy simple things

ESMERALDA / QUASIMODO

The taste of freedom / I like what you say
The sweet sensation / Never felt before
Of being the owner / I want to own myself
Of your own inner self / I'm resolved to try

BOTH

We are resolved to try
The taste of freedom,
The sweet sensation
Of being oneself

What is ESMERALDA's last line?

T____ t_____ o__ f_____

THE TRUTH

Put the verbs in brackets in the correct tense.

Go ahead, you fool.

You (never know) _____.

Who these clothes belong to

Long ago there (be) _____ a

A gipsy girl who (die) _____.

When giving you birth.

My prisoner here

Couldn't understand

That gypsies should die

A spark of remorse

My sweet heart (show) _____

And (keep) _____ you alive

Because I'm good,

Good, good, good, good,

Good, good, and nice

That I love myself

For being born a saint.

Because I'm goodie,

Goodie, goodie, goodie,

Goodie, goodie, good and nice

That I love myself

Oh, la lá!

I love myself

I love myself

THERE'S ONE IN PARIS

Choose the best alternative from the underlined words.

Tell me, good Monsieur.

Tell me, s'il vous plait.

Do you eat/sleep well?

Tell me, good Monsieur.

Do you like the girls/birds

Flying/jumping in the sky?

Do you enjoy warm

Sunny/funny long days?

Do you sleep/eat well

On a warm bed/head

Every day, Monsieur?

A roof to peep/keep

Danger/Changer away…

Lucky, lucky,

Play gipsy, play…

At fast/last we've found

Someone who lives/leaves

And enjoys his rights/fights

There's one in Paris

Who can cry out,

I am alive!

QUASIMODO OF NOTRE DAME

THE LIFE WE DESERVE

Fill in the lyrics with a suitable word. Then listen and check. The initial letter is given.

QUASIMODO

The t_____ has come
To tell you, sir
That we do not
Eat or s_____ well.
We don't have
The r_____ you've got.
Nevertheless
Here we are, here.
This is our t_____
Poor, rich with rights
E_____ to dream,
To feel alive,
The s_____ you do
The same you f_____.

We have the r_____
To face the s_____
To then have l_____
The light we n_____
To sing and s_____:
We can cry o_____
We are alive,
We are alive,
To live the l_____
We know we d_____!

QUASIMODO OF NOTRE DAME

THE BATTLE WE'VE WON!

Unscramble the letters and check the words as you listen to the song.

ESMERALDA

There was a EALBTT _____ to fight
There was a LRWDO _____ to win
There was something to say
Here we are to GISN _____ about
The EONCURQ _____ we made

QUASIMODO

OREMFED _____ belongs to everyone
To you and me, him and her
No one is left IEADS _____
We are peers, fellows, friends

ALL

We are EEOPPL _____, we are human beings
With the same rights and needs
To tell the RRSLUE _____ to watch and see
We deserve no more than to live
We're EEOPPL _____ who cry
For their rights to feel and say
Here we are, this is us
Do not leave us IEADS _____, please.
Equal before God's eyes!
Equal before God's eyes!
Here we are, this is us
And the wheel turns and turns
To face the RTTUH _____ of life
We deserve no more than to live
Equal before God's eyes!
Equal before God's eyes!