EXERCISE 8

Listen to a lecture on the history of money.

Put the signaling phrases for introducing new topics in the order you hear them.

But that wasn't the only big development in China . It was in western Turkey, however, that the system of producing coins became more organised. Now, about 3,000 years ago, there was an interesting development, and this happened in China. Well, we'll start by thinking about the situation in prehistoric times. What else was used instead of money in the distant past?
