Use your mouse to click and drag to draw a line from the word to its definition. If you make a mistake, just redraw the line (the first one will disappear).

Extinct	Group of animals with similar characteristics that can breed to produce fertile offspring
Adaptation	The natural home/environment of an animal
Habitat	Having no living members of a species remaining
Breeding	A characteristic which makes a plant or animal better suited to its environment
Species	Scientific term for a child or children
Genes	When animals mate and produce offspring
Offspring	Units of DNA passed from parents to offspring

LIVEWORKSHEETS