This quiz based on Forgers&Forgeries LWSs consists of multiple choice activities

1. Drag and drop the correspondent name under the picture of each artist

1) Han van Meegeren

2) Eric Hebborn

3) Lothar Malskat

2. The word for a body of work of a painter, composer or author is:

welfare an oeuvre a flop

3. Blueprints are:

sass and gossip

LIVEWORKSHEETS

preparatory drawings

early plans or designs for buildings or machines

4. The _____is supposed to be the positioning of the bodies in the painting that is the most elegant.

full circle

equilateral triangle

flickering of a candle flame

5. Not doing forensic testing is _____ in the art trade that dates back hundreds of years

a jailable offence

part of a residual gentleman's agreement

a confidence trick

6. Who would get drunk while he was making the drawings in order to achieve a certain fluidity of line and body?

Han van Meegeren

Eric Hebborn

Lothar Malskat

7. "A _____line is a giveaway to an expert that something funny's going on."

meticulous painstaking passionate

8. When Hebborn presented a preparatory drawing that looked quite different from the finished drawing , he allowed the expert to _____ .

hit his stride

LIVEWORKSHEETS

nail the process

connect the dots

cease and desist

9. Eric Hebborn had 20 recipes for ink. He took extracts from several _____ trees.

birch oak pine

10. Lothar Malskat, who was a restorer of medieval frescoes just after the Second World War, was

British Dutch German

11. Forensic testing is ____ particularly expensive ____ is it necessarily invasive into the object.

either/or neither/nor neither/not

12. Lothar Malskat inserted into Marienkirche frescoes intentionally two "time bombs" in case nobody believed him. Those anachronisms were:

Marilyn Monroe, and a peacock

Marlene Dietrich, and a turkey

Hermann Göring, and a parrot

13. _____ towards the art world, van Meegeren set out to make fools of his _____.

covered in prickles/ bunny ears embittered/ detractors

inspired/ frescoes

LIVEWORKSHEETS

14. Johannes Vermeer was famed for his _____ and technically brilliant _____.

carefully executed/ painstaking lines carefully forged/ preparatory drawings carefully executed/ domestic scenes

15. Van Meegeren was acquitted for collaborating with the Nazis— and sentenced to a year imprisonment for fraud. Acquitted means:

found guilty found not guilty praised

16. Pick the word for warning of a specific limitation of something such as information or an agreement:

a caveat a condition leniency

17. A provenance trap uses documented history and then creates _____ that match the _____.

real documented history/"lost" works

"lost" works/ real documented history

LIVEWORKSHEETS