Dear Novita Sari,

I am excited to be applying for the Junior Journalist Role at your company. After reviewing your job description, I believe that I am the perfect candidate for the position. I have been writing news articles since I was in high school and I was also the leader of my school's journalistic organization. In addition, I have been interested in Ruang Koran since it won the Most Creative Publication Award last year. I am certain that I can collaborate with your editorial team and further develop Indonesian creative media.

I am a recent high school graduate and currently, I am in my first semester of college in Media and Communication major at Brahmana University. I graduated from high school with a high distinction due to my high exam scores and my extracurricular achievements. I gained my journalistic experiences in my school's student newspaper. I started as a field reporter, in which I learned valuable skills, such as developing detailed articles and maintaining a resourceful knowledge in news topics. Later, I was promoted to the editor role, where I managed my team in producing creative content. Under my leadership, our newspaper won the award for the Best Student Newspaper in the state for two years in a row. I am confident that my proven skills will help me to contribute to Ruang Koran's success.

I look forward to having a discussion about the job in an interview. I hope that my skills and experiences will become valuable asset to Ruang Koran in the future. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely yours,
