THEORY

MUST – USES

-I must study for the exam → Internal obligation

-You must stop smoking → "Deberes a hacer" de una persona a otra (doctor, father...)

-I/you/he/she/it/ We/you/they must respect traffic rules → Same form

MUSTN'T – USES

-You musn't light a fire in the forest → Prohibited

HAVE TO – USES

-You have to do your homework → Rules (school, business)

-I have to stop at the traffic signal → Law (traffic...)

-I have to do the reports → External obligation (si no lo haces habrá consecuencias)

DON'T HAVE TO – USES

-You don't have to come in disguise → No obligation No necessity

EXERCISES	TRANSLATION
Choose the correct form:
I don't have to/mustn't repair it, it's not broken	No tengo que repararlo, no está roto
1. You have to/must to lock the door. There are a lot of robberies lately	1. Debes cerrar la puerta con llave, hay muchos robos últimamente.
2. My girlfriend has to/must replace her passport soon	2. Mi novia tiene que/debe cambiar su pasaporte pronto
3. You don't have to/mustn't come with me if you don't want to go	3. No tienes que venir conmigo si no quieres ir

MÉTODO ISO - JMB