

WILL AND WON'T

WE USE FUTURE WILL FOR THE DECISIONS WE MAKE AT THE MOMENT OF SPEAKING

WE USE FUTURE WILL FOR PREDICTIONS, USUALLY WITH THE VERBS THINK AND BELIEVE.

WE USE FUTURE WILL FOR PROMISES

ACTIVITIES:

1) Look at the examples and complete rules 1-4.

- 1 Lydia will feel tired and happy.
- 2 It'll be hot and sunny.
- 3 I won't be very hungry.
- 4 Will there be many cyclists?
Yes, there will. / No, there won't.
- 5 What will the weather be like?

RULES

- 1 We use _____ to make affirmative sentences about future predictions. The short form is _____.
- 2 We use will not for negative sentences. The short form is _____.
- 3 In questions, we use _____ + noun / pronoun + verb.
- 4 In short answers, we use Yes / No + pronoun + _____ / _____.

2) Complete the sentences with 'll / won't and the verbs in brackets

1. It _____ (rain) in Wales, so don't take your waterproofs.
2. You _____ (have) a great time in New York. It's an amazing city!
3. It _____ (be) hot tomorrow. Let's go to the beach.
4. I _____ (speak) Spanish in Mexico this summer.
5. We _____ (buy) a guidebook. We can use Dan's.
6. They _____ (need) sleeping bags because they're going to stay in a hotel.
7. Don't get up. I _____ (answer) the phone.
8. If the weather is bad, the plane _____ (not fly).
9. _____ you _____ (be) rich in the future?
10. I am so sorry! I _____ (not see) you tomorrow.
11. I promise, I _____ (help) you with Maths tomorrow.

3) Write predictions about your future.

become famous travel around the world go to university win the lottery
live in another town or city write a book
get a good job

For example: I think I will be a famous singer.