PERSONALITY IDIOMS 2

WHIZ-KID	WET BEHIND THE EARS	HOTHEADS
WET BLANKET	A PAIN IN THE NECK	WOOLGATHERER
TOUGH COOKIE	ROLLING STONE	BUTTERFINGERS
PEOPLE PERSON	ROUGH DIAMOND	COPYCATS

1. Those workers are not a set of industrial _____ who down tools at the drop of a hat three or four times a year.
2. The plastic is slippery, so hopefully you don't have _____, because that screen will shatter.
3. The Starbucks Corporation could not be a more perfect example of the proverb, "A _____ gathers no moss," with global expansion along with diversification and risk taking in the areas of product testing.
4. The _____ who has developed Covid-19 data tracker is only a sophomore student of Bengaluru University.
5. If you were asked to envision (hình dung) a "_____," you may conjure someone extroverted and gregarious—perhaps a real "life of the party" type.
6. He said his wife is a _____, a breast cancer survivor who battled the disease for nearly ten years.
7. Nobody invites Sally to parties because she is such a _____ all the time.
8. I am an easily distracted _____ and I need much help remaining engaged as one of the people called to lift my heart on Sundays.
9. People who are always complaining are _____.
10. Jane may have been a _____, but she was loyal to his employer.
11. Every rock singer who makes it big soon has a whole cluster of _____.
12. Hawking was a research student, still _____ by scientific standards.

LIVEWORKSHEETS