

Section R5 1 Preposition Practice

Complete the sentences with the following prepositions:

at away down for off on out up

- Remember to put _____ the fire before you leave.
- Can you pick me _____ at the bus station at six o'clock?
- Students have to stand _____ when the principal enters a classroom.
- Look _____ that guy standing by the door. He's so handsome!
- Stop putting it _____! Do it today!
- I don't feel well. I'm going to lie _____ for a while.
- Are you going _____ during the summer break? I'm going to visit my grandparents in Scotland.
- I'm looking _____ Jim. Have you seen him?
- Please turn the lights _____ when you leave the room.
- Switch off the computer then switch it _____ again.
- You don't need to stand. Feel free to sit _____.
- Should we have a rest or carry _____ walking?
- It was too windy for the aeroplane to take _____.
- The price of petrol has just gone _____. It was one pound ten pence; now it is one pound and three pence.

- 2 Did you get any of these questions wrong? If so, write sentences using the preposition(s).
